Life poured out its heart
 In all areas...
 Moments of Excitement, Inspiration,
 Beauty.
 Chaos and Happy delirium
 Thundered together
 As agility and ability
 Thrilled the crowds
 That yelled
 And screamed
 And cheered
 As the Cougars won
 And won and won...
 And sometimes lost.

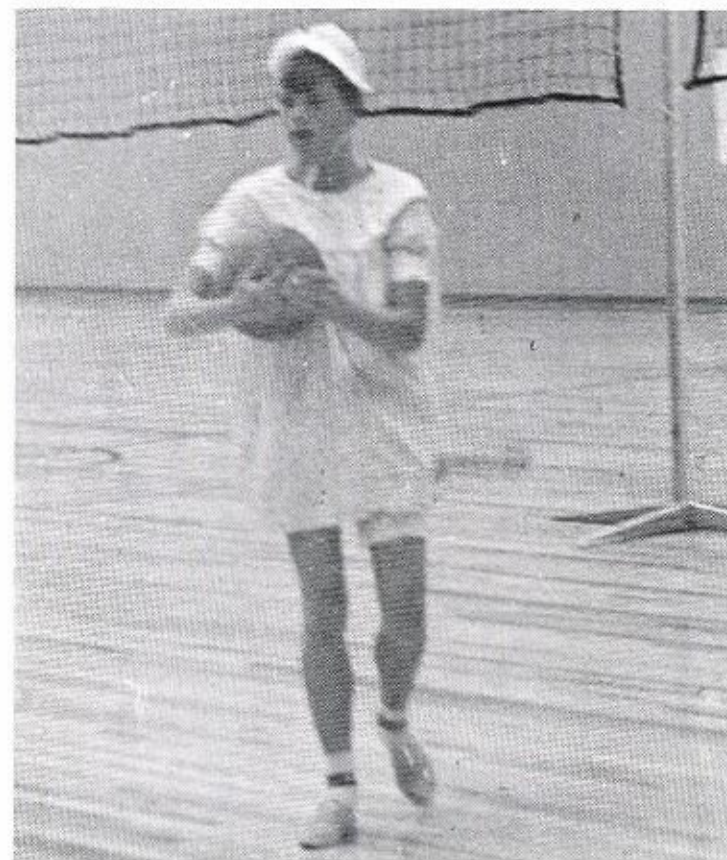

Winter ran its course...
And the rain fell
And the sun shone
On the green lawn.
Spring bounced in
On a baseball
Jumped into a high jump pit
And ran merrily
Around the school
On a homerun.

A year of unforgettable days;
 Days of work,
 Days of play,
 Priceless days
 Of success,
 Of tears,
 Of happiness.
 A year of vivid memories.
 Memories that laugh,
 Memories that cry,
 Unique memories
 Of sights,
 Of smells,
 Of sounds...
 Memories
 Of people,
 Events,
 And Crow High.

Fond memories.
 A good year
 1969

Life has its seasons--its bright summer days,
Its autumns made poignant with memories' haze,
Its cold, lonely winters when bitter winds blow--
But always the crocus of Hope in the snow.

Always the day when the morning breaks through
And clouds break away to a skyful of blue.
Life has its seasons--its sun and its rain,
Its winter--but always the springtime again!

Pep Club

Sometimes the lowly Pep Club member is somewhat underestimated. It not only takes loyalty but stamina to go to some 38 games, wrestling, track, and cross country meets. In between supporting their teams this year's Pep Club put on a "Spring Fever" week which was topped off with their annual dance. 'Crow' T-shirts were sold to help pay off their debts and finance the dance.

Cougar Tales

Controversial. Shocking. Stimulating. Boring. Frustrating. New. Rewarding. Humorous. Different. Our new 4-page tabloid paper was all this and more. The staff members treated it as a child, filling with pride as it grew and flourished under their hard work and extra hours. A newspaper can never be truly appreciated until it is created with your own hands.

The three man sports section John Huston, Lee Holly and Terry Thompson (Big T) debate the possibility of a feature article. Meanwhile Toni Jones chews on her pencil and contemplates her latest story.

The Spanish Club sponsored "Penny Fair" turned out to be a real "swinging" event. The fair helped raise money for the Mexico scholarships.

Barbara Glover, posing as Madame "G" was one of the many money making attractions at the Penny Fair.

Spanish Club

Hard work, un-numerable hours of time and the hot sun and blue sky's of Mexico as a goal combined into three Spanish scholarships. These scholarships enabled three Crow girls to enjoy five weeks of study in Saltillo, Mexico.

Mrs. Dahlburg, Spanish Club advisor, enthusiastically organized assemblies and projects for the student body.

G. A. A.

A Sadie Hawkins day dance, decorated with hay and leaves, complete with Marrin' Sam was sponsored by the G.A.A. The Dynamos played for the annual G.A.A. dance putting the organization in the hole so the girls sponsored bake sales and "Snob Day" to earn money. In the late spring the girls planned an over night campout which turned out to be a pretty lively affair.

It was the beginning of something new
Of summer evenings into winter nights
Of music blaring, legs flying.
Times of utter flustration,
That part you just can't remember--
Why can't we all agree?
Then the Crowd.
Frightening--and sometimes skeptical.
Somehow you give it all you've got--
The applause warms you--suddenly
You know it's worth it.

Homecoming

Was it really Homecoming?
Crow students felt misplaced,
almost alien,
in the new surroundings.
Yet there were the traditional things,
the victory on the turf,
spirited bonfire,
and queens coronation.
Something had changed,
as if Crow had entered
a new era,
never to return.

The turnout this year was the largest ever with 16. Gary Purdy was the only senior on the team this year, so next year we are looking forward to a very successful season.
